

Clayton Winebark Scholarship Program

A student may receive either the Clayton Winebark or the Senator Don White Scholarship award one time only.

Application material will not be returned and become the property of the scholarship committee. Applicants who do not receive a scholarship are encouraged to apply in subsequent years.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Each applicant must plan on, or, are attending an accredited post-secondary educational institution, and must have completed their senior year of high school. Applicant must be showing and selling livestock at the Indiana County Fair. Students must obtain a minimum 2.0 GPA

HOW TO APPLY

Student must complete an application and a statement of approximately 300 words, explaining how the Indiana County Fair has helped them to achieve goals, objectives, and a career choice.

In evaluating the applications, preference will be given to those demonstrating need, and desire and initiative. Each applicant must be subject to a personal interview by the committee of the scholarship program if needed.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Mail application and supporting information to:

Indiana County Fair
C/o Scholarship Committee
PO Box 357
Indiana PA 15701

Applications postmarked after June 14, 2008 will not be considered.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF AWARDS

Applicants will be notified by mail and the names of the successful applicants will be announced the evening of the livestock auction. Recipients must be present or represented to receive the scholarship.

PAYMENT OF AWARDS

Evidence of satisfactory completion of a semester's course including a transcript of final grades is required prior to payment of the award. Deadline for receiving documentation is May 31, 2009. Failure to comply will result in forfeiture.

